THIS COURT FINDS AND ORDERS AS FOLLOWS:

provided and their factors.

On August 1, 2011, the San Diego Superior Court ("court") began an Electronic Filing and Imaging Pilot Program ("Program") designed to reduce paper filings and storage, facilitate electronic access to civil court files and, in Phase Two, allow remote electronic filing ("E-File" or "E-Filing") of papers in civil cases. The ultimate goal of the Program is to create a paperlession electronic file in all divil cases, as well as in other case categories.

Phase One of the Program, described in General Order: In re Procedures

Regarding Electronically limaged Court Records, Electronic Filing, and Access to Electronic Court Records, involved the court's scanning of papers in newly filed cases in designated divisions and departments (the "Imaging Project"). Phase Two of the Program is the implementation of electronic filing by counsel and parties through the court's E-File Service Provider.

Electronic filing under Phase Two of the Program will initially be limited to the Central Civil Division only. Probate and North County Civil Divisions of the Superior Court are excluded from Phase Two of the Program. This General Order relates to Phase Two, and supplements General Order: In re Procedures Regarding Electronically Imaged Court Records, Electronic Filing, and Access to Electronic Court Records.

Permissive E-Filing will begin January 7, 2013 in predetermined non-mandated civil cases in the Central Division, and expand as resources permit. Beginning March 4, 2013, E-Filing will be mandatory in certain types of cases. Further information on these initiatives can be found on the court's website, at www.sdcourt.ca.gov.

Filing and service of documents by electronic means is governed by Code of Civil Procedure Section 1010.6 and California Rules of Court ("CRC"), rules 2.250 et seq. and CRC 2.30. In addition, the San Diego Superior Court's specific requirements for E-Filing are available on the court's website. Litigants and attorneys electronically filing documents must comply with all applicable rules and requirements.

GENERAL E-FILING REQUIREMENTS

Documents can only be electronically filed through the court's electronic service provider (the "Provider"). E-File Provider information is available on the court's website.

Any document filed electronically shall be considered as filed with the Clerk of the Superior Court when it is first transmitted to the Provider and the transmission is completed, except that any document filed on a day that the court is not open for business, or after 5:00 p.m. (Pacific Time) on a day the court is open for business, shall be deemed to have been filed on the next court day.

Pursuant to Government Code section 68150 and California Rules of Court, rule 2.504, electronic documents, whether imaged by the court or filed by the parties, are certified as official records of the court.

Additional and more specific information on electronic filing can be found on the court's website:

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (ADR) INFORMATION

CASE NUMBER: 37-2013-00059554-CU-NP-CTL CASE TITLE

Lizz Boyd-Malone vs. Credit Acceptance Corporation

NOTICE: All plaintiffs/cross-complainants in a general civil case are required to serve a copy of the following three forms on each defendant/cross-defendant, together with the complaint/cross-complaint:

- (1) this Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Information form (SDSC form #CIV-730).
- (2) the Stipulation to Use Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) form (SDSC form #CIV-359), and
- (3) the Notice of Case Assignment form (SDSC form #CIV-721):

Most civil disputes are resolved without filing a lawsuit, and most civil lawsuits are resolved without a trial. The courts, community organizations, and private providers offer a variety of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) processes to help people resolve disputes without a trial. The San Diego Superior Court expects that litigants will utilize some form of ADR as a mechanism for case settlement before trial, and it may be beneficial to do this early in the case.

Enlow is some information about the potential advantages and disadvantages of ADR, the most common types of ADR, and how to find a local ADR program or neutral. A form for agreeing to use ADR is attached (SDSC form #CIV-359).

Potential Advantages and Disadvantages of ADR

A DR may have a variety of advantages or disadvantages over a trial, depending on the type of ADR process used and the particular case:

Potential Advantages

- Saves time
- Saves money
- Gives parties more control over the dispute resolution process and outcome
- Preserves or improves relationships

Potential Disadvantages

- May take more time and money if ADR does not resolve the dispute
- Procedures to learn about the other side's case (discovery), jury trial, appeal, and other court protections may be limited or unavailable

Nost Common Types of ADR

You can read more information about these ADR processes and watch videos that demonstrate them on the court's ADR webpage at http://www.sdcourt.ca.gov/adr.

Niediation: A neutral person called a "mediator" helps the parties communicate in an effective and constructive manner so they can try to settle their dispute. The mediator does not decide the outcome, but helps the parties to do so.

Mediation is usually confidential, and may be particularly useful when parties want or need to have an ongoing relationship, such as in disputes between family members, neighbors, co-workers, or business partners, or when parties want to discuss non-legal concerns or creative resolutions that could not be ordered at a trial.

Settlement Conference: A judge or another neutral person called a "settlement officer" helps the parties to understand the strengths and weaknesses of their case and to discuss settlement. The judge or settlement officer does not make a decision in the case but helps the parties to negotiate a settlement. Settlement conferences may be particularly helpful when the parties have very different ideas about the likely outcome of a trial and would like an expenenced neutral to help guide them toward a resolution.

Arbitration: A neutral person called an "arbitratior" considers arguments and evidence presented by each side and then cecides the outcome of the dispute. Arbitration is less formal than a trial, and the rules of evidence are usually relaxed. If the parties agree to binding arbitration, they waive their right to a trial and agree to accept the arbitrator's decision as final. With nonbinding arbitration, any party may reject the arbitrator's decision and request a trial. Arbitration may be appropriate when the parties want another person to decide the outcome of their dispute but would like to avoid the formality, time, and expense of a trial:

Exhibit A Page 00028

S 3SC CIV-730 (Rev 12-10)

Other ADR Processes: There are several other types of ADR which are not offered through the court but which may be obtained privately, including neutral evaluation, conciliation, fact finding, mini-trials, and summary jury trials. Sometimes parties will try a combination of ADR processes The important thing is to try to find the type or types of ADR that are most likely to resolve your dispute. Be sure to learn about the rules of any ADR program and the qualifications of any neutral you are considering, and about their fees.

Local ADR Programs for Civil Cases

Mediation: The San Diego Superior Court maintains a Civil Mediation Panel of approved mediators who have met certain minimum qualifications and have agreed to charge $150 per hour for each of the first two (2) hours of mediation and their regular hourly rate thereafter in court-referred mediations.

On-line mediator search and selection. Go to the court's ADR webpage at www.sdcourt.ca.gov/edr and click on the Mediator Search" to review individual mediator profiles containing detailed information about each mediator including their dispute resolution training, relevant experience, ADR specialty, education and employment history, mediation style, and fees and to submit an on-line Mediator Selection Form (SDSC form #CIV-005).
